

THE HARMONIE GROUP®

Hirst Applegate, LLP is pleased to announce, Mandy Good was selected as the 2015 recipient of the Fred H. Sievert award. This award is presented by the Defense Research Institute (DRI) to an individual who has made a significant contribution towards achieving the goals and objectives of the organized defense bar. All nominees must be the current or past president of a State and Local Defense Organization (SLDO), who have initiated innovative projects for the betterment of the organization and exercised strong leadership.

Ms. Good is the current President of the Defense Lawyers Association of Wyoming (DLAW), past Chairwoman of the Kiwanis Club of Cheyenne's Ag Committee (2012 -2014), a DRI State Representative, is her firm's CIO, and has been awarded an AV rating by Martindale-Hubbell.

Her practice is focused on civil litigation, including employment litigation and counseling, transportation law, administrative hearings and appeals, insurance litigation. Mandy is a partner with Hirst Applegate, LLP.

The award will be presented at the Awards Luncheon, Thursday October 8 at the 2015 DRI Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C.